

Rio Arriba County Detention Center (RACDC) POLICY 013: BASIC OFFICER COURSE

Full-time detention officers and control officers of the Rio Arriba County Detention facility shall successfully complete the basic detention officer course as well as any other training required by the administrator.

Procedure:

1. All full-time detention officers shall successfully complete the basic detention officer training course, within the first year of employment.
2. The administrator shall arrange for detention personnel to attend the basic detention officer course, or other approved courses, within the first year of employment.
3. Any employee who receives a final test score of 70 points or less in the basic detention officer course may have his employment terminated with the Rio Arriba County Detention facility.